Under United Nation Security Council Resolution 1244*

The European Union is committed to protecting your privacy. Your data is covered by Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 on the protection of individuals with regard to the processing of personal data by EU institutions and on the free movement of such data. The Privacy Statement explaining its application to the “Who is Who” of the European Forum of Official Gazettes can be found here:

<https://circabc.europa.eu/webdav/CircaBC/OPOCE/ojf/Information/prod/html/legal.htm>

The data in the Official Directory of the European Forum of Official Gazettes (OJ Forum – Who is Who) are published to promote the transparency of the public institutions and to enable for European citizens and persons and organisations interested in European affairs to find contact persons. Personal data are processed in compliance with the above-mentioned Regulation. Your data will not be used by the Publications Office for any purposes other than the publication on the internet, in the printed directory and made available for use on portable devices. It is strictly forbidden to use these data for direct marketing purposes. The data published are collected and supplied by the relevant institutions from their records or systems. The institutions refresh the data before publishing the printed directory.

If you feel, however, that the Publications Office has committed an error, you can turn to the controller in the Publications Office (see link below). You have the right to ask for rectification, deletion or update of these data on the website and in the next edition of the directory if justified. Please contact the controller in your institution for this or if you have any questions or complaints concerning the collection of data. If your question or complaint concerns the publishing activity of the Publications Office, you can contact the controller in the Publications Office by e-mail:

forum-official-gazettes@publications.europa.eu

You can also address a complaint to the Commission’s Data Protection Officer
